STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This house is an example of a common western Maryland type. Houses of this general configuration, a rectangular main block, were constructed in Garrett County from the late nineteenth through the early twentieth centuries.

According to the present owner, Helen Bittinger, this house was built for the Bowman family.

The Bittingers bought the house in 1939 and constructed a pond in 1953 which is situated north of the house.

Rt. 219 was relocated just west of the house in 1947.

The Truman Casteel farm, recently demolished, was located across the road (east side of Rt. 219).
